

Observation Rubric

Revised AY 21-22, validated August 24, 2022

The purpose of this form is for Cooperating Teachers and University Supervisors to assess teacher candidates through formal and informal observations during placements. The items listed on this assessment are based on InTASC standards, the level of guidance and feedback required of Cooperating Teachers and University Supervisors, and best practices in P-12 education. Proficiency levels do not translate into A – C grades. Instead, the rubrics are designed to generate data that will reveal patterns of candidate performance at various stages of development across the learning progressions.

Please use the following scale as you assess candidates:

- Unacceptable. Language in this category includes questionable capacity for, and limited or no evidence of, the described item, despite having significant guidance and feedback from the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.
- Developing. Language in this category includes capacity for, but incomplete evidence of, the described item. The candidate performs tasks with significant guidance and feedback from the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.
- Proficient. Language in this category includes demonstrated evidence of the described item. The candidate performs tasks with minimal guidance and feedback from the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.
- Exemplary. This category includes the “proficient” description plus language indicating evidence of advanced capacity for the described item. The candidate independently performs tasks exceptionally well at the level of an experienced educator.

Instruction

	Unacceptable	Developing	Proficient	Exemplary
Established Purpose and Assessed Prior Knowledge	Delivered the lesson without establishing a purpose or assessing prior knowledge.	Attempted to establish a purpose and assess prior knowledge.	Established a clear purpose and assessed prior knowledge using logical and appropriate techniques.  Created interest in what was to come by linking prior knowledge.	...and used a creative approach to motivate student engagement with the lesson and to help students link prior knowledge.
Scaffolded use of Essential Vocabulary	Used essential vocabulary and academic language without introducing them to students.  Neglected to provide opportunities for students to interact with vocabulary and academic language.	Provided an overview of essential vocabulary and academic language.  Provided limited opportunities for students to interact with vocabulary and academic language, and without consideration of learning differences and needs.	Introduced essential vocabulary and academic language with student-friendly definitions and examples.  Provided multiple opportunities for all students to interact with vocabulary and academic language.	...and used a variety of evidence-based techniques to encourage student use of academic language and vocabulary to engage in and express complex thinking.

Multiple Representations	Represented content one way, or the representations and explanations are not appropriate to the content. Made no attempt to guide learners along a learning progression.	Provided limited representations or explanations of the key concepts in the content standards. Attempted to guide learners along a learning progression.	Provided multiple representations and explanations of key concepts in the content standards being covered. Made connections to learners' experiences and integrated culturally relevant content to build on learners' background knowledge. Guided learners along a learning progression.	...and fluently modified representations and explanations in the moment, based on learners' responses.
Content Command	Explained content inaccurately and lacked clarity. Did not link content to relevant, real-world applications. Presented content from one perspective.	Explained content accurately, but either was too verbose or lacked examples/ elaboration. At times, made vague or superficial links to important content and essential applications. Missed opportunities to introduce a variety of perspectives.	Explained content accurately and clearly. Linked content to relevant, real-world applications. Encouraged learners to view content from a variety of perspectives.	...and fostered innovative problem-solving and original ideas using content.
Facilitating Students' Opportunities to Respond	Did not allow for student input or responses. Asked poorly-worded and unclear questions, or none at all.	Allowed minimal input/responses from students. Asked probing questions only at the end of the lesson; or, asked surface-level questions (yes/no, recall, identify, define, name).	Provided opportunities for all students to process key concepts through discussion. Asked probing questions throughout the lesson. Encouraged students to ask questions and share their thoughts/ideas.	...and required students to support their reasoning with evidence. Involved all students in the process of summarizing, applying or synthesizing the learning throughout the lesson. Modeled and guided students to use metacognitive skills (e.g., analyze, create, critically evaluate).

Use of Formative Assessment(s)	Ignored evidence that modifications were needed to facilitate student learning. Provided students with very little feedback.	Modified instruction at times, but otherwise overlooked need for adjustment to facilitate student learning. Provided feedback to students, but did not consistently check that feedback was helpful or understood.	Based on formative assessment, modified instruction as needed to facilitate student learning. Provided students with immediate and explicit feedback about their work that guided them nearer to mastering the learning objectives associated with the lesson.	...and created opportunities for students to analyze their work and set goals for their own learning.
Lesson Closure	Ended lesson abruptly (e.g., ran out of time). Transitioned to the next class or activity without closing the lesson.	Summarized key concepts from lesson. Asked students if they had questions. Ended the lesson by assigning additional work.	Involved students in summarizing key concepts from the lesson. Linked learning to what was previously taught. Previewed future learning.	...and led students to connect what was learned to larger ideas/concepts.
