

Leadership and Military Science Minor (ROTC) – 2015-2016

26 semester hours

CPT Albert Chatwood, Detachment Officer-In-Charge
512 Davis St, Apt. J, 540.831.5288
www.radford.edu/rotc

Leadership and Military Science Minor (ROTC) Requirements

The College of Humanities and Behavior Sciences offers a minor that allows for the interface of a student's primary discipline with the Army leadership system. The minor requires 26 semester hours of coursework.

Students will take the following classes in order:

MSCI 111 Introduction to Leadership and the Army	_____ (2)
MSCI 112 Developing Leader Skills I	_____ (2)
MSCI 211 Leadership Styles/Theory and Application	_____ (3)
MSCI 212 Developing Leadership Skills II	_____ (3)
Entry into MSCI 311, 312, 411 & 412 require a commitment to serve in the U.S. Army, National Guard, or Reserves upon graduation.
MSCI 311 Leading Small Organizations	_____ (4)
MSCI 312 Developing Leader Skills III	_____ (4)
MSCI 411 Leadership Challenges and Organizational Goal Setting	_____ (4)
MSCI 412 Transition to Officership	_____ (4)

And one ROTC required History course to be chosen from the following:

HIST 111 U.S. History to 1865 (May also fill core requirement)
HIST 112 U.S. History since 1865 (May also fill core requirement)
HIST 302 War in the Modern Age
HIST 303* Studies in Military History
HIST 320 The Vietnam War
HIST 361 Revolutionary America
HIST 365 Civil War and Reconstruction	_____ (3)

* Preferred Course

Those completing the first four classes will earn a certificate.

Those who complete all MSCI classes with a "C" or better will earn a Minor in Leadership and Military Science and will be commissioned as an Army Officer (Second Lieutenant - 2LT) upon graduation. These graduates will serve their country as an Active Duty Army Officer, an Officer in the National Guard or an Officer in the Reserves.