DEVELOPING IN HONORS
STUDENTS IN HONORS
Thursday, October 31, 2002

Duplicate as necessary - Please print or type

A Celebration of Honors Teaching is a workshop for honors faculty to share honors teaching techniques.

Beginning in Honors® serves faculty and administrators who are new to honors education, whether starting a new honors programs or assuming positions of leadership in existing programs.

Developing in Honors is a workshop for experienced honors directors, faculty and staff (at least one year in your honors position by the time of the conference). If you are interested in offering suggestions for DIH, please submit this form by March 1, 2002.

"Melting Pot or Salad Bowl? The United States in 2002" is a workshop focused on issues of diversity and multiculturalism. The Committee on Diversity coordinates this workshop.

Students in Honors is a workshop for honors students.

Other than the costs of registering for the NCHC conference, there is no additional charge for these workshops. Pre-registration is required. If you would like to assist with the workshops or suggest topics, please fill out this form and return it to the address at the bottom. Registration forms for these workshops will be sent later in the spring.
